Agenda Items/ Minutes:

I. Introductions were made.

II. Formative Assessment of Campus Improvement Plan

Reviewed the three goals from the CIP and how the campus has progressed in each of the strategies. (1# foster a safe and supportive community for all learners, 2# Increase Student achievement for all student groups, 3# Leadership of teachers and staff of the campus.

Goal 1: Counselor is visiting classes for bullying meetings and second step lessons. 48% of students attended Spooky night and Campus may have a Christmas carol push out to families with a bag of hot chocolate for the family.

Goal 2: 4th grade will not have a growth measure and 5th grade will only have one time to test. Growth measure will be on 5th grade only. Positions have been posted for 2 - 49% part time intervention teacher and 1 full time instructional aide (possibly for Third and Fourth grade small groups). Possible round the world grade level competitions on the Friday before thanksgiving and Christmas.

Goal 3: Region 12 has been set up and will happen possibly in January. If you have any questions about the Roadmap rubric let the Principal know. TTESS starts after Thanksgiving. If you have a paraprofessional that is good at an area (EX guided Reading) let us know so that we can have them lead trainings in January.

III. Target Improvement Plan

TIPS may require a parent meeting in the next 10 days via zoom. Principal shared what percentages would be needed in each grade level and subject in order to maintain a C in each Domain. Principal reviewed the prioritized focused area: 4.1, 5.1, and 5.3. Principal reviewed student data of what campus received last year and the campus goal for getting approaches this year.

Meeting adjourned at 4:54 p.m.
